PART 4: Feedback

4.1 Summarize project targets, goals and the follow-up and success at achieving such goals.

The main goal is to render these widows and orphans more financially independent by helping them to fight against poverty within their respectively families and aiming to improve their living conditions. Another main purpose of this project is to make these beneficiaries able to supply their own needs without waiting for another person for help. The project aims to fight against women unemployment in Burkina and contribute at the same time to their blossoming.

- To improve her family living conditions

- To render her more financially independent
- To help her developing her resilience capacity
- To develop the spirit of combativity in her through this project
- To help fighting against unemployment and poverty.

4.2 The main goal of Yetim Vakfi is to provide all-round aid to the poor and needy using the means, manpower, labor force and materials available in the region. We are expecting your feedback as to whether this goal has been achieved, as well as your suggestions for future projects (if any) in line with the achievements of the existing project.

Please specify in detail whether you used local manpower or materials in your project. (Example: if you provided food parcels, specify where you purchased the foodstuff from and how many people you employed for the preparation and distribution of the same).

All the materials are from the local market and done by the local manpower.

The beneficiaries were very receptive to this project because it will help these women to fight against poverty by improving their living conditions through this Income Generating project. All the projects of this kind we used to realize are very good welcomed. We can read the joyful feelings on the beneficiaries' women faces.

4.3 It is highly important to seek feedback from end beneficiaries in order to indicate the impact on the local public.
