

4. Project Descriptio

Project Summary	This project is a social and humanitarian initiative aimed at supporting vulnerable households during the three days of the Eid al-Adha festival. It involves purchasing 50 cows in bulk, slaughtering them buthering them, and distributing the meat to the households heads struggling financially to provide for their families. Each household head will receive approximatively 4-5 kg of meat, resulting in 120 beneficiaries per cow, and 6,000 beneficiaries per 50 cows if we consider "6" as average number of a Burkinabe family.
Statement of Need and Project Rationale	Eid al-Adha is a major event in the Muslim faith, commemorating Abraham's act of sacrificing his only son, Ismail, to fulfill his vow. However, a portion of the Muslim community worldwide lacks the financial means to do so. The project was designed to assist these vulnerable individuals in Burkina Faso, with nearly 1,000 households expected to benefit.
Project Framework	The main objective is to bring smiles and joy to the vulnerable households in order to the spirit of the celebration, sharing, solidarity and love of neighbor is strengthened and maintined in the habits of societies towards one to another. OSEH will inform the MUSAID Association of any changes that will occur during the implementation of this project, and the two parties will agree on the next steps. Target Audience: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Muslim community of Burkina Faso. • Anyone in a vulnerable situation. • Internally Displaced persons (IDPs)
Impact	1000 direct families and 6000 indirect souls with meat aid.
Monitoring and Evaluation	After the approval of the project by Musaid Association, We held a team responsible for the project supervision from the beginning to the end. All the project process is supervised that mean from the animals purchase, the keeping, slaughtering, skin removing, cutting into pieces, packing, filling into plastic bags for distribution.. Photos and videos in addition to the final report, the invoices and the beneficiaries' lists to end to our partner at the end of the project implementation cover the whole process.

During the Kurban 2026, your generosity reached 1000 souls directly and 6000 indirectly in Burkina Faso. This impact is very huge for poor families. In addition, other many people like them are still waiting for this kind of support due to the hard times that our country is going through since 2015 due to the terrorism nearly 2 million of Internally displaced persons throughout the country.
